How do we ship?

Please allow 7 – 10 business days for processing. If you require a CD(s) for recording, the CD soundtrack(s) requested will be sent via UPS Ground to the address listed on the leasing agreement unless noted otherwise. If you do not require a CD(s) for recording, the leasing permission paperwork will be sent to you via US Mail after it has been processed.

To have your material shipped overnight delivery the cost is $25.00 (2nd Day $15). However, please note that overnight shipping does not mean you will receive your package overnight it simply means when the order is processed and ready to be sent, it will be shipped overnight.

License Agreement/Payment Explanation:

When making a custom recording using pre-recorded accompaniment tracks, there are two (2) separate permissions that must be obtained for each song. They are: 1) permission to use the sound recording, through a Custom Master Lease License (THIS LEASE AGREEMENT) and 2) permission to use the song itself, through a Custom Mechanical License.

Custom Master Lease License: Upon receipt of your payment and completed agreement, we will grant usage of Praise Hymn Soundtracks, Praise Hymn Traditional, Modern Worship Songtracks, Sound Performance, Hi-Lo (Plus) or You Can Sing Trax. The license will authorize you to duplicate up to 2,500 copies of your custom recording. The license and lease fee applies only to the lease of the sound track recording.

Custom Mechanical License: You must contact each publisher for each song you plan to record and request a Custom Mechanical License. You should provide the publisher with the following information regarding your custom recording: artists name, project title, release date and number of units to be manufactured and whether or not you will be selling your project. We do not have publishing information.

Please note: you must always obtain permission to record a song in any way. There is a common misconception that if you are not selling your recording or not making a profit, etc., you do not have to obtain permission to record a song. This is not true! In some cases, a publisher may grant permission to record without charge, but this should NEVER be assumed.

How do I get the Publisher's contact information so that I can request permission to record their song?

Unfortunately, we do not have this information. However, the information below will help you in this process. Please visit the following four web sites to obtain the publisher's contact information:

www.ascap.com www.bmi.com www.sesac.com www.harryfox.com

Each of these organizations represents songs. Collectively they represent all of the songs in the world so one of these sites should contain the publishing contact information you need. Log on to one of the websites above and start by searching for the song title in their database. You may also search for the information by the name of the songwriter(s) or the publishing company name. If you do not find any information regarding the song you are searching for, you must go on to each of the remaining sites.
